

Collection SEVENTY DAY

Seventy Day is a system of modular units which can be used alone or matched with each other in different ways, creating a composition that can be easily adapted to everyone's taste and environment.

The system includes: benches, units for drawers, units for doors which can be put on floor with plinth H 3,5 cm, or on chromium plated feet H 9,5 or 33,5 cm or they can be hanging and then wall panelling, shelved, and other elements.

The doors are available in three models: with Seventy handle (flush on the door's line), with Line handle (glossy chromium), with Push opening.

design: Pietro Arosio

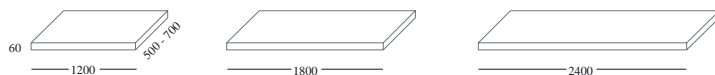

Finish:

Mat and glossy lacquered in our selected colours, wengè, black walnut.

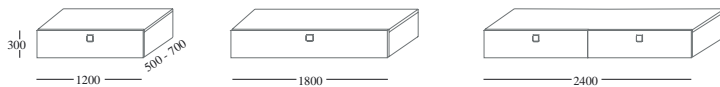

The doors and the drawers' fronts are available also with glossy lacquered glass in our selected colours and natural mirror.
